With his unsurpassed designs, Hans Kuijten knows how to transform any room into a place where you feel at home. From living room to hotel lobby and from bar to business room. A creation by Hans Kuijten is a translation of your wishes into a unique design. To achieve an interior that fits like a perfectly tailored suit, Hans gets under your skin, so to speak. He wants to be able to read your DNA. Which style appeals to you? Where do you feel at home? Hans will work with your wishes. Want to bet he knows how to surprise you? The ideas often arise during a first conversation, just over a cup of coffee. This is followed by the research phase. I read up on it and immerse myself further. For me, a design is only successful when the customer feels at home in the room.
